FOREWORD

Ellen,
I probably would never have known you if you hadn't moved here. I'm so glad you did. Your a real good friend.

Several keys unlock the door to Darlington High School. The key to education lies in the hands of the teachers. The organization key belongs to the administration. Activities and sports provide the key to relaxation. One key is left to the students. This key is theirs to use to open the door to success. This door will open if all the keys have been used to the best advantage.

Ellen,
Our rainbow friendship means the most to me. I can't say all I want to, but I think you know what's not written. Always stay a "Hambony lover!"
Rainbow lover,
Guinea lover!

S. Good luck at the Prom!
Hope you have as much fun as I did.

Do you know how hard it is to find a place to write this dumb old yearbook? I think I got it now. I think I'll write it next year. I'll write it next year. I'll write it next year.

DEDICATION

The members of the 1965 graduating class of the Darlington Consolidated High School respectfully dedicate this, our annual, to Mr. Emerson Mutterspaugh, who, for four years, has assisted and guided us as competent coach and teacher, understanding counselor, and trusted and respected friend.

ADMINISTRATION

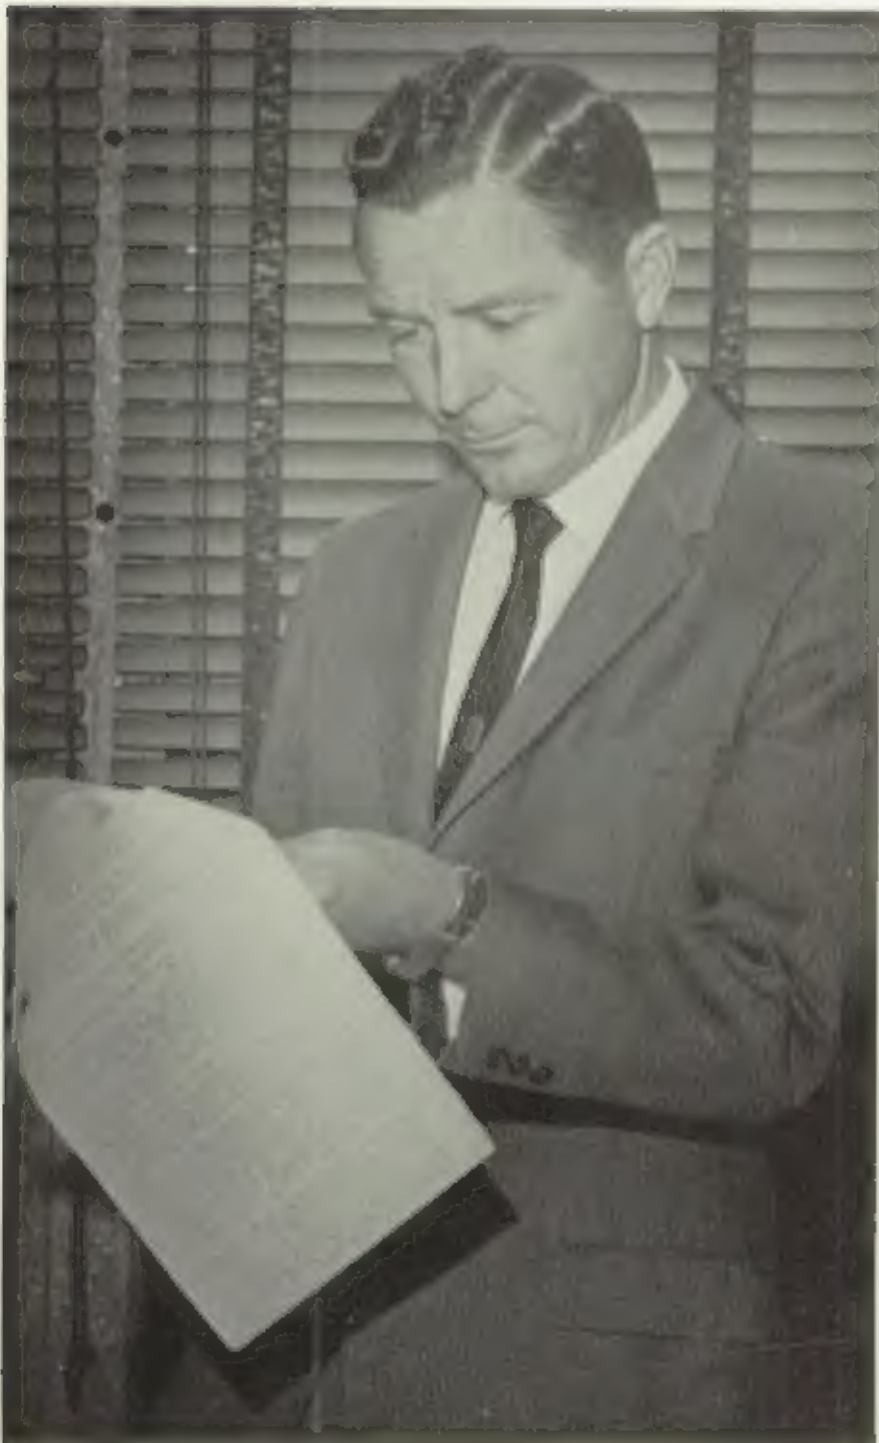

SCHOOL BOARD: Damon Warren, Member; Donald Weliever, Treasurer; Haven Horney, President; Lewis J. Runnels, Secretary; Hal Clark, Member.

ADMINISTRATION

KEY TO

Mr. Eual McCauley, County Superintendent of Schools, was our principal when we were Freshmen. He taught us the value of self-discipline; he encouraged good sportsmanship and fair play. We will always be grateful for the interest he showed in us then and the interest he still takes in all of our school activities.

To Mr. Randall Quimby, Principal, we owe our sincere thanks for helping us to unlock the door to the future. He has helped us to realize how important an education is. His cooperation and guidance have been an inspiration to us. Mr. Emerson Mutterspaugh was first our coach and teacher, then our assistant principal and counselor. His help cannot be estimated. He is ever willing to help us solve the problems that beset a graduating class. To these two men, the Class of 1965 express their unreserved gratitude.

IS THE ORGANIZATION

Our school secretary, Mrs. Edythe Cain, will be fondly remembered by the Class of 1965 for her helpfulness and kindness to us during the past four years.

Miss Janet Cox of the Senior class was chosen Prom Queen and was presented with a bouquet of white roses by Don Carpenter, vice president of the Junior class. Miss Cox's escort was Mr. Gerald Gick.

In an exotic setting of smoking volcanoes, rustling palms, and moonlit sea scapes, the Class of 1965 entertained the Senior class and special guests at an evening in Blue Hawaii.

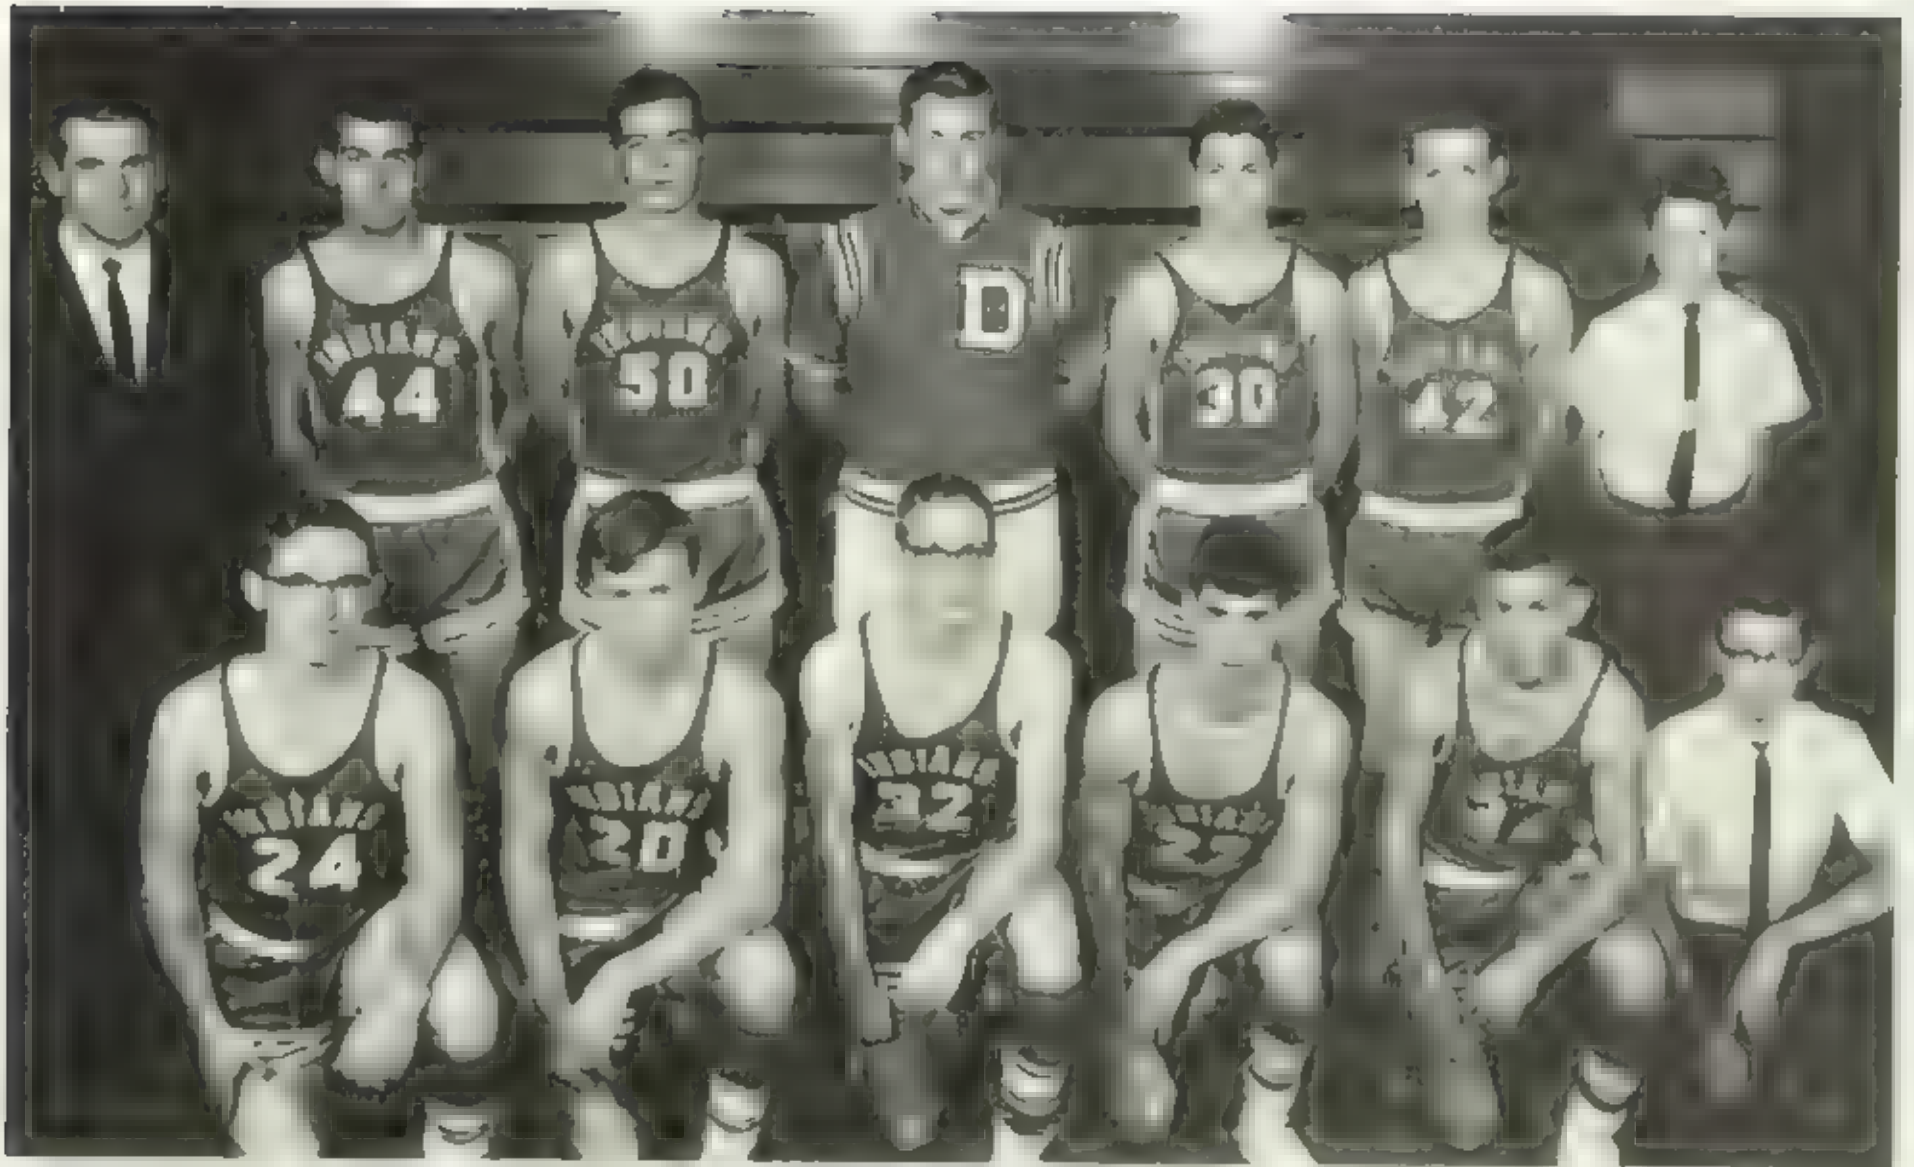

As guests entered, they were greeted by lovely, barefoot maidens in island attire who presented them with leis in rainbow colors.

Following a three course dinner of Hawaiian delicacies, the evening was spent in dancing to the music of the dance band, 'The Twilighters.'

D.H.S. VARSITY

Symbolizing the enthusiasm of the student body for their spirited Indians are the Cheerleaders. These nimble youngsters have already received a trophy for the splendid exhibition of their skill at the Indiana University Cheerleader's Conference.
